August 3rd (Wed) - New Swan Theater, UCI

The Retirees Association has a block of tickets for “As You Like It”. Information on price and how to RSVP will be available in the July newsletter. Special group rate. Parking will be complimentary for Retiree Association members.

Eli Simon, Artistic Director, New Swan Shakespeare Festival, directs Shakespeare’s much-loved comedy of love and disguise, exile and companionship. This Ridin’ the Rails production is set in the Depression Era, with original folk music written by Alan Terricciano, and played and sung by the actors. Hopping a freight train to the Forest of Arden, Rosalind meets a wild array of characters, including Touchstone the vaudevillian clown and Jaques the melancholy drifter. Playing games of disguise and pretense, Rosalind digs deep into her lover’s heart and winds up surprised by what she learns about her own. Join us for an intimate evening of love, fantasy, and companionship ... as you like it.

Upcoming Hikes!

More information coming soon and be sure to check the website for updates at retirees.uci.edu.

Your Feedback?
