Retiree Health Benefits - UPDATE

Last month, we were informed by the CUCRA and CUCEA (the Councils of UC Retirees and Emeriti Associations) that the Retiree Health Benefits Working Group submitted its recommendations to President Napolitano. President Napolitano has now responded. A summary of the Working Group’s recommendations and the President’s response may be found at: https://ucnet.universityofcalifornia.edu/news/2018/07/retiree-health-benefits-working-group-issues-report-president-supportive-of-recommendations.html.

There are no significant changes to retiree health benefits for 2019.

CUCRA and CUCEA thank those who have sent letters and emails to the working group’s emeriti and retirees representatives when asked to provide input. Your continuing participation may be necessary in 2019 as part of the ongoing consultation and decision-making process.

UCI RETIREE HIGHLIGHT:

At the time of her retirement in 2011, Martha was invited to continue her evening work with Patient Health Education at UCI, which she had begun in 2000, teaching meditation and a class she developed called “Preparing for Surgery” for the Anesthesia Department. She then helped establish the Spiritual Care Ministry. In April, 2018 she received her 14 year service pin for Volunteer Service, and continues to volunteer in the Meditation Room on weekends. She was also offered the chance to join Mana Kai Wellness in Orange to have a private practice in Meditation and Healing Arts.

Martha also joined OLLI/CSUF to study Ukulele and has performed with their small group. She also plays Gospel Night at the Island Bazaar in Huntington Beach once a month, and enjoys “Ukulele Soup” at the Orange City Public Library. She is a member of many museums as well as Library and Literary organizations, and the O.C. Historical Society, and the Women’s Club of Orange. She takes writing classes at Rancho Santiago College, participates in a private writers’ salon, and published a short story in PLEXUS. An avid researcher, she is always looking for information on meditation to share with others and finds it rewarding to do presentations for hospital patient support groups. She loves to hear from others and can be reached at mjkjensen@uci.edu (or Martha.jensen09@gmail.com).
